

NEWHAVEN FORT

THE DIEPPE RAID

The Dieppe Raid is a significant event in the history of Newhaven as many of the troops who embarked on the raid were stationed in the town. Use this worksheet to learn more about what happened at Dieppe.

Go to the Dieppe and D-Day display

What was the code name given to the Dieppe Raid?.....

On what date did it take place?.....

Find the display case with items relating to Don Gorman and write down three things about him

1. ....
2. ....
3. ....

Write down one of the purposes of the raid.....

What were the total number of casualties during the raid?.....

Find the cabinet containing the Canadian Flag. Draw the flag in the box below.

Listen to the commentary in the audio presentation and use it to answer these questions.

What time did the force leave Newhaven?.....

What happened to the tanks and how many got off the beach?.....

.....

Now move on to the Home Front exhibition

Listen to the Wartime Memories presentation.

One lady speaks of the German Prisoners of War. Fill in the gaps in the following sentences.

The lady shows empathy by saying that the PoWs' plight was ".....to see" and adds that they were "some ..... sons"

Next stop is The Fort and Newhaven exhibition

Look around for some information about Commander Robert Scott. Which ship did he command during the Dieppe Raid?

.....

You can find the answers to the next questions as you take a stroll around the fort.

On the walkway above the Caponier entrance is a memorial to which Canadian Regiment?

.....

Built in the same year as the Dieppe Raid, what feature within the fort was built by Canadian Engineers? (clue, it's next to the path that runs behind the café)

.....